Productivity

1. TEXTILE

Ana Lisbet

Part of the Young Talent collection.

2. TROPEZ

Stefan Diez

A line very much defined by its casual aspects and flexibility, inspired by the world of sports from the 1920s and 30s. Using a language we know from elegant sailing boats and handcrafted tennis racks, Tropez brings the comfort of domestic furniture to the outside.

3/4. PROOFF #006 SIDESEAT

Studio Makink & Bey

A balanced piece of furniture made of high quality materials. A compact workstation featuring functional elements that sit separately but together create a flexible space where one can work, wait, read, phone, or study. A stimulus for creativity and a focus for the staff.

5. KELLY

Andrea Tosetto

A suspension lamp in painted metal that creates diffuse lighting.

6. LETO

Manutti designer team

A seat collection with a playful, pure, colourful look and a rounded form to ensure extra comfort.
www.manutti.com

7. ELEMENTS

Gerd Couckhuys

ELEMENTS offers endless combinations allowing you to arrange this new collection to your own taste. It is even possible to create a lounge with several elements. The LED lighting in the supporting part provides that extra touch.

TAKING A GANDER

What else is out there

Having attended the finest design fairs, DAMN^o cannot rest without seeking out the more novel items that have sprung-up outside of all the razzmatazz. Presenting a handful of lamps, tables and chairs that are surely worthy of notice...
